A woman with short brown hair, wearing a blue patterned jacket over a dark blue top, stands behind a bar counter. She is looking slightly to her left. On the counter in front of her is a tall flute glass containing a light-colored beverage, a clear plastic water bottle, and a glass bowl filled with golden-brown chips. To the left of the glass, there is a small, ornate glass dish. In the background, there is a wooden wall with shelves holding various items, including a white coffee maker, a glass pitcher, and a calendar. Three white, dome-shaped pendant lights are visible, hanging from the ceiling. The overall setting appears to be a bar or a social gathering area.
